DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

(Posts & Telegraphs Board)

New Delhi, the 14th April 1965

G.S.R. 645.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the recruitment to the Telegraph Engineering Service, Class I and certain conditions of service of persons appointed thereto, namely:—

PART I-General.

- 1. Short title.—These rules may be called the TELEGRAPH ENGINEERING SERVICE (CLASS I) RULES, 1965.
 - 2. Definitions.—In these rules unless the context otherwise requires—
 - (a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission.
 - (b) "Government" means the Central Government.
 - (c) "Service" means the Telegraph Engineering Service Class I, particulars of which are given in Appendix IV.

- 3. Composition of the Service.—There shall be four grades in the Service. Namely—
 - (i) Junior Time Scale Rs. 400-400-450-30-600-35-670-EB-35-950.
 - (ii) Senior Time Scale Rs. 700—40—1100—50/2—1250.
 - (iii) Junior Administrative Grade Rs. 1300-60-1600.
 - (iv) Senior Administrative Grade Rs. 1800-100-2000.
- 4. Appointment to the Service.—(1) Appointment to the Service shall be made by the following methods:—
 - (a) by competitive examination held in India in accordance with Part II of these Rules.
 - (b) by promotion in accordance with Part III of these Rules.
- (2) Nothing contained in these rules shall apply to appointments and promotions against posts reserved for the employees of the Companies which formerly functioned in the Telephone Districts of Bombay, Calcutta and Madras.
- 5. Filling of vacancies in the Junior Time Scale.—Fifty per cent of the vacancies in the Junior Time Scale in the Service will be filled by competitive examination as provided in Part II of these rules and fifty per cent reserved for promotion as provided in Part III of these rules.
- 6. Government to determine the vacancy.—Subject to the provisions of rules 4 and 5, Government shall determine the method or methods to be employed for the purpose of filling any particular vacancies or such vacancies as may require to be filled during any particular period and the number of candidates to be recruited by each method.
- 7. Special representation.—Appointments to the Service made otherwise than by promotion will be subject to the orders issued from time to time by the Ministry of Home Affairs regarding special representation in Services for specific sections of the people and for graduate engineers who are commissioned in the Armed Forces on a temporary basis.
- 8. Liability to serve in the Defence Services.—Officers recruited direct to the Telegraph Engineering Service, Class I, shall be liable to serve for a minimum period of four years (including the period spent on training) in the Defence Services, or on work relating to defence effort anywhere in India or abroad, if so required. The liability to serve in the Defence Services will be limited to the first 10 years of service, and will not ordinarily apply to graduate engineers above 40 years of age.

PART II—Recruitment by competitive examination

- 9. Time and place for competitive examination.—A competitive examination for appointment to the Service shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed in the notice issued by the Commission for the purpose. Every such notice will, when possible, announce the number of vacancies to be filled on the results of the examination.
- 10. Combined examination.—If the examination held under this Part is a combined examination for the purpose of making appointments to more than one Service or Department, the following provisions shall apply, namely:—
 - (a) any person may apply to be admitted as a candidate for appointment in all or any of the Services or Departments for which he is eligible. If he wishes to be considered for appointment in more than one Service or Department, he shall state in his application form the names of the Services/or Departments for which he wishes to be considered, and the order of his preference for them, and in such case, it shall not be necessary either to fill in more than one application form or to pay any additional fees.

- (b) Government shall assign successful candidates to each Service cr Department on a consideration of all circumstances including any personal preference expressed by the candidate.
- 11. Form of making application.—A candidate shall apply for admission to the examination before such date, in such manner, and in such form as the Commission may prescribe:

Provided that in the case of a candidate who is in a permanent or temporary service of the Government or any State Government, the application for admission to the examination shall be sent through the Head of the Department or office in which he is serving.

- 12. Persons eligible for examination.—(1) A candidate must be either:—
 - (a) a citizen of India, or
 - (b) a subject of Sikkim. or
 - (c) a subject of Nepal, or
 - (d) a subject of Bhutan, or
 - (e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
 - (f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India:
 - Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been granted by the Government and in the case of a candidate belonging to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment, beyond which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian Citizenship.

Certificate of cligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (1) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948 and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948 and have got themselves registered as citizens of India under article 6 of the Constitution.
- (iii) Non-citizens in category (f) who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, namely, the 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then without a break. Any such person who re-entered or may reenter such service with a break after the 26th January, 1950 will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.
- (2) A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being granted in his favour by the Government.
- 13. Age limit.—(a) A candidate must have attained the age of 20 years and must not have attained the age of 25 years on the first day of August of the year in which the examination is held.
- (b) The upper age limit mentioned at (a) will be relaxable up to 30 years in case of the following persons:
 - (1) A candidate who holds substantively a permanent post in the Posts and Telegraphs Department. This relaxation will not be admissible to a probationer appointed against a permanent post in the Department during the period of his probation;
 - (2) A candidate who has continuously held for a period of not less than two years a temporary post of (i) Repeater Station Assistant, or (ii) Foreman and Assistant Foreman, Telegraph Workshops, or (iii)

Temporary Assistant Engineer Workshops, or (iv) Engineering Supervisor, or (v) Workshops Supervisor, under the Posts and Telegraphs Department.

Provided that no candidate shall be permitted, under the relaxation of the upper age-limit mentioned at (b) to compete more than three times at the examination,

- (c) The upper age limit will be further relaxable in respect of such categories of candidates as may be notified by the Government from time to time, to the extent notified in respect of each category.
- N.B.—(I) If the examination held under this Part is a combined examination for the purpose of making appointments to more than one service or post, a candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination once for all the services/posts ordinarily covered by the examination if he competes for any one or more of the services/posts.

A candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination if he actually appears in any one or more subjects.

N.B.—(II) The candidature of a person who is admitted to the examination under the age concession mentioned at (b), is liable to be cancelled if, after submitting his application, he resigns from service or his services are terminated by his department, either before or after taking the examination. He will, however, continue to be eligible if he is retrenched from the service or post after submitting his application for the examination under this Part.

A candidate who, after submitting his application to the Posts and Telegraphs Department is transferred to other Department/office, will be eligible to compete under the age concession mentiond at (b) for appointment to the Service, for which he would have been eligible but for his transfer, provided his application is forwarded by the Posts and Telegraphs Department.

SAVE as provided above the age limits prescribed can in no case be relaxed.

14. Educational qualifications.—A candidate must have—

- (a) obtained a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational Institute established by an Act of Parliament, or declared to be deemed as Universities under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 (3 of 1956); or
- (b) passed Sections A and B of the Associate Membership Examination of the Institution of Engineers (India) or have any other educational qualifications recognised by that Institution, as exempting from passing these sections; or
 - (c) obtained an engineering degree of one of the universities mentioned in Appendix I under the conditions prescribed in that Appendix; or
 - (d) passed the Honours Diploma Examination in Civil, Mechanical or Electrical Engineering of the Loughborough College, Leicestershire provided the candidate has passed the common preliminary examination or has been exempted therefrom; or
- (e) passed the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Telecommunication Engineers (India); or
- (f) passed the Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held after November, 1959. The Graduate Membership Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, held prior to November, 1959 is also acceptable subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) that the candidates who have passed the examination held prior to November, 1959, should have appeared and passed in the following additional subjects:—
 - (i) Principles and application of Electrical Engineering (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section A of post-1959 scheme),
 - (ii) Mathematics II (in accordance with the syllabus prescribed in Section B of Post-1959 Scheme); and
- (2) that the candidates concerned should produce a certificate from the Institution of Electronics and Radio Engineers, London, in fulfilment of condition (1).
- Note 1.—In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate, who has not any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided that he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.
- Note 2.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such a candidate will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if he does not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.
- Note 3.—Candidates who are otherwise qualified but who have taken degrees from foreign Universities which are not included in Appendix I may also apply to the Commission and may be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.
- 15. Certificate of admission.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final; and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.
- 16. Consequences of impersonation etc.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,—
 - (a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period: -
 - by the Commission, from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and
 - (ii) by the Government from employment under them;
 - (b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under Government.
- 17. Fees.—A candidate must pay the fees prescribed by the Commission unless exempted therefrom or granted concession thereof in accordance with the exemptions and/or concessions in this respect notified by the Government from time to time.

No claim for a refund of any of the fees shall be entertained except to the extent notified by the Government from time to time nor can the fees be held in reserve for any other examination or selection to be conducted by the Commission.

18. Conduct of the examination.—The examinations under this part shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner prescribed in Appendix II to these Rules.

19. List of successful candidates.—Candidates who obtain such minimum qualifying marks in the written examination as may be fixed by the Commission in their discretion shall be summoned by them for an interview for a personality test.

After the examination, the candidates will be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate; and in that order so many candidates as are found by the Commission in their discretion to be qualified by the examination shall be recommended for appointment up to the number of unreserved vacancies decided to be filled on the results of the examination.

Provided that any candidate belonging to the Scheduled Caste or the Scheduled Tribe who though not qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the service, is declared by them to be suitable for appointment thereto with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration, shall be recommended for appointment to vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, in the Service,

Success in the examination confers no right to appointment unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service.

Note.—The form and manner of communication of the result of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion.

20. Physical fitness.—A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health, and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of his duties as an officer of the Service. A candidate who, after such physical examination as Government or the appointing authority, as the case may be, may prescribe is found not to satisfy those requirements will not be appointed. All candidates who are declared qualified for the Personality Test will be physically examined at the place where they are summoned for interview, either immediately before or after the interview. Candidates will have to pay a fee of Rs. 16.00 to the Medical Board. The fact that a candidate has been physically examined will not mean or imply that he will be considered for appointment.

In order to prevent disappointment candidates are advised to have themselves examined by a Government Medical Officer of the standing of a Civil Surgeon before applying for admission to the examination. Particulars of the nature or the physical test to which candidates will be subjected before appointment and of the standards required can be had from the Commission.

- 21. Disqualification.—(1) No male candidate who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service, on the results of competitive examination unless the Government after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any male candidate from the operation of this sub-rule
- (2) No female candidate, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment to the Service, on the results of competitive examination unless the Government, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any female candidate from the operation of this sub-rule.
- 22. Attempt to obtain support for candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.
- 23. Probation.—(a) Appointments shall be made on probation for a period of two years.
- (b) If, in the opinion of Government, the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory, or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, Government may discharge him forthwith.
- (c) On the conclusion of his period of probation Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of Government been unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him from the Service or may extend his period of probation for such further period as Government may think fit.

- (d) If no action is taken by Government under sub-rule (b) or (c), the period after the prescribed period of probation shall be treated as an engagement from month to month, terminable on either side, on the expiration of one calendar month's notice in writing.
- 24. Delegation of power.—If the power to make appointments in the Service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of Government under this rule.
- 25. Test in Hindi.—Probationers will also be required to pass a test in Hindi before confirmation.

PART III—Appointments by promotion

- 26. Appointment by promotion to the Junior time scale in the Service shall be made by selection on merit from among officers of the Telegraph Engineering and Wireless Service, Class II, ordinarily with not less than five years' permanent service in Class II on the recommendations of a duly constituted Departmental Promotion Committee, and in consultation with the Commission. The period of probation shall be two years.
- 27. (a) Appointments to the Senior Time Scale in the service shall be made by promotion of officers in the Junior Time Scale in the order of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit. A directly recruited Assistant Divisional Engineer shall not ordinarily be promoted as Divisional Engineer unless he has put in five years' service and has passed the prescribed departmental tests.
- (b) Posts in the senior time scale may, however, be filled, as a purely temporary measure, in an officiating capacity, or to hold charge, by the promotion of permanent members of Telegraphs Engineering and Wireless Service, Class II, who are on the approved list for promotion to the junior time scale.
- 28. Appointment to the Junior Administrative Grade in the Service shall be made by selection on merit from amongst officers ordinarily with not less than five years' permanent service in Senior Time Scale of Telegraph Engineering Service, Class I, on the recommendations of a duly constituted Departmental Promotion Committee.
- 29. Appointments to the Senior Administrative Grade in the Service shall be made by selection on merit from amongst officers ordinarily with not less than three years' permanent service in the Junior Administrative Grade on the recommendations of a duly constituted Departmental Promotion Committee.
